Hospitality. The word evokes the warmth of someone welcoming you into their home. And that's exactly our approach when we welcome guests to Loftus Road.

However, this is no ordinary home and certainly no ordinary corporate hospitality. With catering provided by top International restaurant Cipriani, facilities at QPR exceed many of the top Premiership sides.

Our 'C' and 'W12' clubs feel less like traditional pre-match entertainment and more like exclusive private members clubs. This, of course, is exactly what they are.

At QPR we aim to achieve the highest standards possible both off and on the pitch. Our new hospitality packages represent a giant leap in offering simply the finest match day experience you can possibly imagine.

It's little wonder that we're attracting some of the most famous faces from business and the world of celebrity.

Queens Park Rangers is the place to be.

The highest standards

CIPRIANI

A taste of luxury

In 1931, Giuseppe Cipriani opened Harry's Bar in the heart of Venice, the legendary venue becoming a byword for elegance, style and glamour.

Today the Cipriani Empire boasts some of the best restaurants, bars and hotels in the world. From 2008 QPR will be joining this illustrious list, as our corporate guests are served some of the finest food available.

Our partnership with Cipriani is a hugely exciting development for QPR and one that demonstrates our commitment to providing the highest levels of service for our guests.

Lavish four course meals, or a simple but delightful buffet...it's your choice. Whichever option you choose, you'll be treated to authentic Mediterranean cuisine, cooked to perfection.

QPR's partnership with Cipriani promises to be a truly special part of the match day experience at Loftus Road.

Our club within a club

When the new management team at Loftus Road decide that QPR's new VIP club is going to be unlike anything ever seen at a British football ground you can be sure that the results will be rather special.

After all, the club is now led by a team who not only spend their working lives in the high-octane world of Formula One but who also have a chairman in Flavio Briatore who began his career running some of the continents most stylish nightclubs.

The result is the C Club, an exclusive club limited to just 100 members.

With outstanding food in sumptuous surroundings, this will feel more like a Manhattan members club than sporting corporate entertainment. Not only that, but this exclusive membership allows you to mix with some of the worlds biggest business people. Here are some of the many features that you can expect from the C Club;

- The ultimate members club, with invitations limited to just 100
- Luxurious armchair seating which offers the best views in the stadium
- Exquisite fine dining from World Famous Ciprianis
- Private lounge and dining areas for all members
- Exclusive access to our brand new Boutique, offering you the most stylish merchandise available
- Private parking conveniently located near to Loftus Road
- Match day crèche facilities

Boxes

Located just below the Director's Box, running the length of the South Africa Road Stand, our re-designed hospitality suites offer the very latest in luxury entertainment. The viewing galleries are unrivalled in their proximity to the pitch, with seating available for up to 12 people within each box. With food from London's famous Cipriani restaurant, your very own hostess, plus a dedicated team of serving staff you can be sure you and your guests will experience the very best in corporate hospitality. On non match days, you can enjoy the benefits of your executive box for meetings and entertaining throughout the year. There will also be fantastic networking opportunities between all our box holders, as they become part of the QPR business club.

Here are some of the many features that you can expect from our exclusive boxes;

W12

Welcome to W12

W12 is inherently linked to the heritage of Queens Park Rangers Football Club. So in its honour, we decided to name our new premium members club for match day hospitality after it.

With seasonal memberships available to a limited number of people, W12 offers members the chance to enjoy a relaxed buffet meal catered for by Ciprianis, before taking in the action in some of the best seats in the house. W12 has been designed to create a relaxing atmosphere, with the flexibility to either book a table or go for standing room only.

Here are some of the many features that you can expect from W12;

- Stylish buffet meal presented by Ciprianis
- Option to reserve a table if you wish
- Comfortable padded seats to take in all the action
- Complimentary match day programmes
- Request your VIP parking on match days
- Refreshments provided at both half time and full time
- Keep up to date with all the Football action on Sky Sports
